

Sunday 30th October 2022

My dear brothers and sisters,

This week, I would like to share with you a wise admonition I received from my mother while growing up as a teenager.

She called me and said:

“Nwanzi, biko ge m nti ofuma! Onye iro ndi ozo nwekwara ike buru onye ga azoputa gi mgbe ino na nkpa! Ya mere, gba mbo ka onye iro onyeozo ghara ibu onye iro gi”

Slightly translated into English language as follows:

“Nwanzi, Please, Someone’s enemy might be your own helper, therefore, be careful how you fight battles that are not Yours”

As we reflect on the above wise words, may I encourage you to carve out time this week to reflect on the good and practical wisdom you may have received from your own mother or grandmother.

Have a peace filled week and please remember to apply those practical wisdom you have received from your parents.

May the intercession of our Blessed mother Mary accompany you and your families, Amen.

Yours Affectionately,
Father Nicholas Nwanzi.
