POPE AT URBI ET ORBI

As war continues to scar the world, Pope Leo XIV used his Christmas Urbi et Orbi message to renew his appeal for peace, dialogue, and responsibility, turning to those regions where violence and instability continue to claim innocent lives.

Prayers for peace

The Pope prayed for "justice, peace, and stability for Lebanon, Palestine, Israel, and Syria," and urged that the promise of peace rooted in righteousness be renewed. He appealed in a particular way for Ukraine, asking that "the clamour of weapons cease," and that all those involved, with the support of the international community, find the courage to engage in "sincere, direct, and respectful dialogue."

Remembering conflicts that risk being forgotten, Pope Leo XIV expressed closeness to the victims of war and violence in Sudan, South Sudan, Mali, Burkina Faso, and the Democratic Republic of Congo, as well as to all those who suffer as a result of injustice, political instability, religious persecution, and terrorism.

The Pope also prayed for Haiti, calling for an end to violence and progress along the path of peace and reconciliation. He also invoked peace for Myanmar, asking that the country be guided towards reconciliation and hope, especially for its younger generations. Turning to Latin America, he encouraged those with political responsibilities to give space to dialogue for the common good, rather than to ideological and partisan divisions.
The Pope also prayed for the restoration of the "ancient friendship" between Thailand and Cambodia, and entrusted to God the peoples of South Asia and Oceania, who have been severely affected by recent natural disasters, calling for renewed commitment to assisting those who suffer.

MARY

MARY will have her own place in our life.
We cannot separate her from the Lord who chose her as His mother and as His bride.

MARY is the selfless space where God became man; she is the silence in which God's Word can be heard.
She is the free woman, subject to none, not even to the powers of evil.

MARY is the image of the Church.
Her self-effacing service will guide you to the Lord. Her faith and fidelity are a model for your life.

MARY has trodden all the paths of our human existence; she has gone through darkness and suffering, through the abyss of loneliness and pain.

MARY is the little creature through whom God's grandeur shines out; she is the poor one filled with divine riches.
She is wholly grace, and grace for us.
Let us then take our part joyfully in the prophecy of Scripture:

"Behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed".
